

Synergy Craft Studio General Commercial/Personal Use License

Thank you for purchasing and supporting Synergy Craft Studio. This document explains Synergy Craft Studio's General Commercial Use License. This document outlines how you can use the item for both personal and commercial use. We define an "item" as a graphic, design, or font unless otherwise specified.

**If you would like to use an item for high volume production (above 500 copies) or any volume of print on demand, you must purchase an Enterprise License from Synergy Craft Studio for each individual item.

Allowed:

- Use of any item for personal and commercial use. This means you may use it for yourself or create something with the item for sale (includes local and online sales).
- Graphics, fonts, or designs may be used, without alteration, in the creation of a finished physical product that's sold.
  - For example, if you purchase a cut file of a "lotus", you may make a t-shirt with the "lotus" on it without making any changes to the "lotus". This t-shirt can be sold. Further customization or personalization (adding a name) for the purpose of physical resale is permitted.
- Fonts can be used to create commercial use text-based digital designs and/or physical products sold commercially as long as the font is created in a way that it can NOT be modified. The font itself cannot be re-sold or re-distributed.

Not Allowed (either for sale or for free):

- Item itself - in its original digital form as purchased from Synergy Craft Studio - may not be resold, sublicensed, transferred, shared, or otherwise re-distributed in its original digital form (e.g. as you purchased it).
- Item may not be included in the sale of another item.
  - For example, if you purchase a design of a "truck", you may not include the file of the "truck".
- design as part of a bundle or with the purchase of a t-shirt Graphics and digital designs may not be used and sold as part of a new commercial use digital design even when layered with other designs or flattened.
  - For example, if you purchase a graphic of a kitten, you may NOT create a new design that includes this kitten even as a small part of the larger design . The design may only be used on a physical item when used commercially.
- Item may not be used with print-on-demand services in any volume without an Enterprise License (sold separately).
- Item may not be used for High Volume Production (above 500 copies) without an Enterprise License.
- Digital cut files may not be digitized and re-sold as embroidery files.
- Embroidery files may not be digitized and re-sold as other file types.
- Use of Synergy Craft Studio images of the item or of the finished product to promote or market your product.
  - This means that you can't use our stock photos or mock ups of our items for your own use
